Trysull and Seisdon Parish Council

Queen Elizabeth II – In Memoriam

A Remarkable Head of State

Trysull and Seisdon Parish Council's elected members and officer were and remain deeply saddened at the passing of Queen Elizabeth II. We know that the whole Parish, County and Country will also share in this truly nationwide grief.

Her Majesty was often thought of, heart-warmingly so, as the Mother of our Nation serving us relentlessly with steadfast loyalty and commitment. Our Queen was indeed a matriarch in every sense and our thoughts and deepest sympathy must be with the Royal Family in this saddest and most personal of times.

This remarkable life of service, longevity of reign and devotion to us, her people, is now committed to the pages of our long-established history, yet no finer chapter could ever be written.

As we now make our final bows, we also honour our new King Charles III and I would like to thank my colleagues who ensured our Union Flag was once again raised to full mast during the Proclamations of our Sovereign Rex and immediately retuning it again to half mast at one o'clock on the Sunday to once again join the Country in its continued period of mourning. The portrait of our late Queen, hanging in the Village Hall, has also been adorned with a black ribbon of respect.

I'm sure we have all been awe inspired by the days of pageantry that makes us the envy of the world but, for me, the memory that I will always cherish will be the solemn quotation from Hamlet (Act V Scene ii) by the King himself in that public, yet so personal and emotional of farewells to his dearest Mama:

May flights of Angels sing thee to thy rest.
