Trysull & Seisdon Parish Council Standing Orders

INTRODUCTION

These standing orders have been adapted from the NALC model standing orders 2018 for England.

Standing orders are the written rules of a local council. They are essential to regulate the proceedings of a meeting. A council may also use standing orders to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. The standing orders of a council are not the same as the policies of a council but standing orders may refer to them.

Councils operate within a wide statutory framework. Standing orders incorporate and reference many statutory requirements to which councils are subject. It is not possible for the standing orders to contain or reference all the statutory or legal requirements which apply to local councils. The standing orders in bold type do, however, contain or comply with a legal or statutory requirement.

These standing orders do not include Council's financial regulations. Financial regulations are standing orders to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of a local council. The financial regulations, as opposed to the standing orders of a council, include most of the requirements relevant to the council's Responsible Financial Officer.
